Sunrise services, crowded churches, radiant songs of praise, inspired messages—this is Easter Sunday morning throughout Christendom.

Every year it is the same. As we ponder it, the questions rise—“Why this continuing interest?” “Why the un-diminishing crowds year after year at Easter time.” Someone explained it as the crowds’ desire to display their lovely Easter garments. Others come out of idle curiosity to see the sights. Still others come out of force of habit, to follow the crowd and to do the popular thing.

Of course, I realize that there is some truth in all of these. But this is not the whole truth. Somehow I cannot escape feeling that there is something deeper than this. Somehow my soul senses a greater concern than this. A haunting, yearning quest for an answer to the age-old question: “If a man die shall he live again.” Somehow there haunts the soul of man the conviction that God has created us for eternity. Our souls are not destined for oblivion.

Life goes on.

Life goes on. Is not this the message of Easter? Is not this the assurance of the Christian faith? Eternal life belongs to the Christian. His is life that shall never end. This the firm declaration of the Gospel “He that believeth on the Son has everlasting life.”

This was the declared purpose behind God’s gift of His Son. Jesus so testified of Himself “Whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never be in thirst: but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.” “Yet a little while and the world seeth me no more; but ye shall see me: because I live, ye shall live also.”

So the Christian is firm in the belief that for him life goes on.

Life goes on. The Christian life is not a religion of death, it is a religion of life. It did not end on a cross or in a grave. I know there was a cross planted on the hill and an occupied tomb sealed on the hillside. But the tomb is empty now and that cross has become a symbol of victory. For Christ is risen. The darkness is gone.

Life goes on!

Pastor & Sister Reed’s 47th Appreciation Service

Fairview’s beloved Shepherd, Pastor John, and Sister Pat Reed, were honored during the week of March 21 through 28 for 47 years of faithful service of feeding the Fairview Flock. The Fairview Family and many other visiting Church Families were there in large numbers to join in the celebration. The presence of so many of the faithful was testament to the quality of service both have given down through the years. The attendance this year was larger than it had been during the past years, and that in itself displayed the love that the Fairview sheep and others have for Fairview’s beloved first family.

The celebration began on Sunday Morning, March 21, with the annual appearance of Rev. Reggie Payne – Son in the Ministry to Pastor Reed and Pastor of the Full Gospel Baptist Church, Los Angeles. Rev. Payne’s sermon was short, scintillating, and to the point as he delivered a beautiful message taken from the Old Testament book of I Chronicles 4:9-10. This passage of scripture deals with a noted Biblical figure in the person of Ja’-bez.

In reading the referenced scripture, we see that Ja’-bez was honorably born, but Pastor Payne dug deeply into the meaning of being honorably born and showed that it could be a disadvantage to be born that way but did not disqualify him from receiving the blessings of the Lord. Thus the title of the message, “Ja’-bez: Disadvantaged, But Not Disqualified.” Just look into verse 10 and you can see that Ja’-bez, himself, recognized the disadvantages that he faced, but like young King Solomon, King of Israel, Ja’-bez prayed to the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob to grant him the necessities to overcome all the disadvantages that he faced and GOD ANSWERED THE PRAYER OF JA’-BEZ just as he answered King Solomon by granting much more than the original request. Pastor Payne pointed out that God can and will do the same for you and I if we only ask Him in sincerity and truth to do those things which we cannot do for ourselves.

Young Derek Nettles, Children’s Church Pastor at Fairview, gave a ringing declaration in his words of appreciation to Pastor & Sister Reed and to the enhanced meaning that they have given to his life through their love displayed toward him and others.

We move to the Friday night portion of the celebration and that evening, another of Pastor’s Sons in the Ministry was the featured speaker. That person was Rev. E. Tyson Jennings, Proud Pastor of the New Hope Baptist Church. Pastor Jennings moved all of us on up a little higher with a profound message entitled, “The Challenge of Pastoring in Times Like These.” He used as his text, Matthew 10:16-28. Jesus warned his disciples that there would be wolves among the sheep every where they went. The main thrust of his message was that wolves would be in the government, in the family, and in the church. He told them that they must be wise as serpents, for when serpents sense danger, they quickly remove themselves from that danger. He also told the disciples that they must be innocent of all wrongdoing when spreading the word. He emphasized the fact that they would be hated of all men, but those that endured to the end would be saved.

Notable that night was the enthusiastic welcome and acknowledgement of guests, given to the large gathering by Sister Janice Cook and in the words of appreciation given by Sister Deborah Sancho. Sister Sancho said that she could just imagine Jesus asking Pastor John at the outset of his calling “if he loved Jesus” and she could hear Pastor John answering as the Apostle Peter answered, “Lord, you know that I love you.” Jesus told Pastor John to “feed His sheep” and Pastor John has faithfully done that for the past 47 years.

Sunday Morning, the final day of the celebration was upon us and from Chandler, Oklahoma, and the Central Baptist Church, and Muskogee, Oklahoma, the Loving Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, Pastors James E. Reed, Sr. and Rev. Gary Hall brought their congregations to celebrate with us.

Pastor Reed, Sr. is the younger brother of Pastor Reed, Jr., and Rev. Gary Hall is the successor to the legendary Rev. Dr. John A. Reed, Sr., long-time Pastor of Loving Mt. Calvary. Pastor James Reed spoke on “What has Happened to Love?”, using as his text Matthew 5:45-47. He emphasized that no one individual is loved by everyone. Jesus Christ had his distracters and each of us that follow Him certainly has our distracters. Strangely enough, many of them are our fellow brothers and sisters in Christ. Both Pastors brought their choirs along with them and each choir did their part in preparing the exceptionally large congregation for the Spoken Word.

At the grand finale on Sunday afternoon at 3:00 PM, the featured guest was the St. John Missionary Baptist Church of Oklahoma City, pastored by Rev. Dr. Major Lewis Jemison. They were joined by nine other guest churches. Musically, First Baptist Church of Purcell, Pastor Ricky McNeal, Emmanuel Baptist Church, pastored by Rev. Chester West, and Greater Antioch Full Gospel Baptist Church, pastored by Dr. Lester Cezar, rendered some absolutely beautiful musical selections, which again added to the worshipful atmosphere.

At the grand finale on Sunday afternoon at 3:00 PM, the featured guest was the St. John Missionary Baptist Church of Oklahoma City, pastored by Rev. Dr. Major Lewis Jemison. They were joined by nine other guest churches. Musically, First Baptist Church of Purcell, Pastor Ricky McNeal, Emmanuel Baptist Church, pastored by Rev. Chester West, and Greater Antioch Full Gospel Baptist Church, pastored by Dr. Lester Cezar, rendered some absolutely beautiful musical selections, which again added to the worshipful atmosphere.

Then the large and beautifully prepared Senior Choir of St. John Baptist took the choir stand and delighted the huge congregation with two additional musical numbers, prior to Dr. Jemison delivering the sermon for the afternoon.

Dr. Jemison, as usual, saluted Dr. Reed and the family with a warmness reserved for “true friends.” That warmness is built on mutual respect and trust for the position that Pastor Reed occupies and for the way that he and his family have carried themselves down throughout the years. Pastor Jemison launched into his message and what a message. Using Matthew 25:14, he told us in his message “How to Handle The Lord’s Business.” I shall only say that the answer to that question, which was the title of his message, is found in verses 15 through 30 and suggest that you open your Bibles and see what thus sayeth the Lord about it.

The end of the celebration drew near, but our Venerable Pastor, as he is wont to do, surprised his long-time First Lady and his Fairview Family with something that neither of them had witnessed before. Joined by musically talented Velina Davenport and with instrumental support from Musician Anttwain Cox, Pastor serenaded the love of his life with “WIND BENEATH MY WINGS.” Sister Davenport got him started, but once she put the wheels in motion, Pastor took over from there and got on a roll. He had Sister Pat wiping tears of joy from her cheeks and the audience spellbound with his salute and tribute to one whom, through his own remarks, HE COULD NOT HAVE MADE IT THIS FAR WITHOUT HER.

He gave her a big “buss” at the conclusion of the musical tribute and Sister Pat, after regaining her composure, was serene and composed in her remarks and gave equal tribute to THE LOVE OF HER LIFE and thanked God for putting Pastor John there as her companion. This was their 47th Pastoral Anniversary, but come June 2010, they will have been betrothed 49 years, if it’s the will of the Lord.

Sister Pat was resplendent in her dress, as she always is, and Pastor was a proud husband, father, and grandfather as he paid tribute to all of his family. Once again he reminded the Fairview Family that they have a Pastor until God sees fit to refreshment from labor, for he had no intentions of going elsewhere.

Pastor & Sister Pat, Shai and Shree, Tony & Derrick, Tonia, Bri, and DJ, Fairview adores you and we thank you from the bottom of our hearts for your dedication. We give thanks to God for placing you as First Family of the Fairview flock and our prayer is that God continues to make his face shine upon you for many years to come. Keep on serving the Lord with gladness. A crown of life awaits you at the end.

Event Photos by Levi McCullough are on the back cover.
Crucifixion was the worst method of punishment when Jesus walked the Earth. Unlike others condemned to death on the cross, Jesus was nailed to the cross by his wrists and feet with nails 6 to 8 inches long. The nails in his wrists ripped the tendons so that his arms could not be used. With both of His feet nailed together, He was forced to support himself on the single nail, so He had to alternate between arching His back and then using His legs to continue to breathe. He had already endured being beaten so severely that it tore His flesh and His beard was ripped from His face while He walked for 2 kilometers carrying His cross. Throng of people threw rocks at Him and spat in His face. He hung there 3 hours and died for YOU, but He rose from the dead and HE LIVES.
The adult all nighter was a blast!!! We had over 30 young adults attend the event with lots of food, fun and fellowship. Rev. Derek Nettles blessed us with an amazing sermon during which we had one W.O.W. participant come down for Christian experience. We had a praise dance by the Jesus Puppet and several games that got the young adults up and moving! What an awesome way to spend a Friday night, stay out of trouble, fellowship with your fellow Christian peers, and meet new friends! I hope this becomes an annual tradition for W.O.W.

The Young Adults lead a 'Town Hall' meeting where they intensely discussed the issue of 'Role Models', should people out front leading (in the spiritual world and in secular world) be stripped of there honors, awards, when they mess up, etc. Why or Why not? Also, the young men discussed what they value in young women and the young women shared what they value in young men. Night at the Apollo' talent show was unforgettable. A few had to visit the 'Men's Party Pooper Area' and 'Women's Party Pooper Area' before the night was over, but most hung all night, watching movies, snacking, playing video and Wii games and sharing and discussing issues faced by young adults, until the wee wee hours of the morning. Everybody headed home about 6 AM.

Communications Conference

Communicating the Gospel to the Uttermost!!

Fairview Baptist Church held its 3rd Annual Communication Conference March 12 & March 13th. The Conference was titled In it to Win In 2010; Communicating the Gospel to the Utmost.

Mealeatha Patterson, Director of Communications, Public Relations and editor of the Fairviewan opened up the conference in the main sanctuary, followed up with a prayer from Rev. J.A. Reed, Jr.

Rev. Cleo McGlory, Fairview’s Minister of Evangelism opened the session on Friday night concerning our church’s theme, Winning Souls for Christ. Saving souls is a serious matter. The Lord is on his way back. (“He that shall come will come.”) We need to be about the Lord’s business and we need to be careful with our time, because the Lord isn’t going to give us any more time!”

“What does it profit a man if he gains the whole world and loses his soul?”

You may be a servant with many talents, but witnessing to someone needs to be one of your duties. We just can’t get by with doing “church work” if we are not doing the “work of the church!”

People die everyday and the Lord puts people in our path so that we can witness to them. We can’t sit on our Christianity when people are going to Hell. Faith comes by hearing and the Gospel has to be proclaimed and communicated to the lost while we have the chance.

The keynote speaker of the Friday night session was Dr. Lee Cooper, Jr. Pastor Prospect Baptist Church. Dr. Cooper’s message was, Excellence in the Kingdom of God.

We need to be motivated to operate in excellence. When we come to church, we think we can just get by. But we can’t. When excellence is your goal, good enough is not good enough!

Dr. Cooper talked about being SAVED, SANCTIFIED AND SEALED, a phrase that he learned from his Uncle Tipton. Saved: Being born again. Sanctified: Having God change and rearrange your life. Sealed: Covered by the Holy Spirit. This shows that you belong to God.

Dr. Cooper also left the audience with these words: Live for the future and not in the past. Challenge yourself to do things a better way. Your method should never change but your methodology needs to change! Be motivated to reflect on something bigger then yourself. Dr. Cooper quoted E.K. Bailey, “If you are your only cause, then you have a mighty little cause.”

The Friday night session concluded with a panel that included Rev. Arthur Crawford, Fairview Associate Pastor, Rev Michael Cooper, Producer, Director, and Announcer, (the son of long time member Mrs. Lillian Williams), Levi McCullough, Church Photographer/Musician and Joey E. Parker. Jamar Patterson was the moderator for the panel discussion.

Saturday’s keynote speaker was Fairview’s very own, Rev. J.A. Reed, Jr. His message was Burning the Candle at Both Ends. Rev. Reed explained how easy it is to burn the candle at both ends and not even realize this is happening. So what do you do when this happens? Pastor said he takes his advice from “the book” and applies it to his own life.

Pastor Reed’s message came from the Mark 2:7. But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea. The reason Jesus withdrew himself was because he was dealing with the Pharisees, who were a bankrupt people. They were also conspiring to get rid of him.

Jesus, in the midst of serving God, was battling opposition. Jesus had a rhythm and balance of life. Work and rest; worship and play. At this point, he was tired, weary and he was stressed out, so Jesus withdrew.

We also learn this lesson in our own lives. Too much work or even worship can stress you out. There needs to be a balance in your life. Without rest, Jesus would both burn out and accomplish very little. So, he withdrew himself. Some of us don’t know how to rest. Jesus set the example!

Once you are restored, you can come back and be better. We as a church need to learn how to handle stress. We have to understand we are not super human: there are no super human Christians!

Burned out Christians are tired and numb. Stressed out Christians are not fun. Health surveys state that two-thirds of doctor’s visits are stress related. Our lifestyles are making us stress out. Stress is the wear and tear of life. Stress shows up in our behavior by overeating, smoking, temper tantrums, taking prescription and illegal drugs and making sloppy decisions. Then, you end up with a sense of hopelessness. All of this affects your health and shows up as heart attacks, diabetes, cancer, high blood pressure and the high percentage of suicides in our community.

Stress-free living is impossible. So we need to learn to deal with our stress. Stress management is important for every individual. The best formula is doing it Jesus’ way.

You can’t be effective in your ministry if you can’t even handle your personal life. Everyone on earth has the same 24 hours. It’s not that you need more time, but rather you need to make better use of the time you have.

Stress can rob you of your joy. Jesus went through all of this stress and He is our supreme example. When Jesus was stressed out he left the scene. The land represented work, and the sea represented rest. Jesus went to the sea for rest. We all need to find Our Sea.

Laree Reidenbaugh, Human Relations Coordinator for OKDHS, was the final presenter of the day. This motivational session explored the attributes and behaviors that relate to becoming successful in all relationships, both personal and professional.

This was a great conference and all the attendees left armed with ways to promote their ministries.

The Communication and PR ministry will continue to bring you new formats to assist you in helping you promote and uplift your ministries and communicate to win the campaign for Christ.

On January 16th, 2010 the Women’s Ministry of Fairview joined with the other women of the East Zion District in the annual Prayer Retreat and Conference. The theme of this year’s conference was "Now Faith Is" taken from, Hebrews chapter 12. The conference was held at the Langston University-OKC campus.

Four different classes were offered:

Session III - "A Time to Continue: It Ain’t over Until God Says So" - Sister Scoby used her life as an example of continued service. She showed how her retirement as a teacher was continued in service to God. She stated we must use the rest of our lives in service until God says time is out. She said that every woman should die empty. She should give until she is given out. When we teach we touch lives of people we have never met before. We must be careful how we live before them. When God gives us a task to do He equips us for it and we must continue the work until it is finished. (II Timothy 4:5). He gives us spiritual gifts to accomplish what He has for us to do. These spiritual gifts are given to every believer not to unbelievers. Everyone is given some talents. Nonbelievers use their talents for the world. Believers use their spiritual gifts for God's Kingdom work. I must work the work of Him who sent me while it is day; for when the night comes no man can work. It ain’t over until God says so.

Session IV - "A Time for Prayer" - Sister Dugan started by stating the importance of coming into the presence of God. She said that in order for us to be affective prayer warriors we must be in agreement with the third person of God, the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit lines us up with God’s way of thinking. Our thoughts can defeat our lining up with God's thoughts. She then discussed strong holds of the mind. If we have a mindset of hopelessness we can cause other believers to have the same sense of hopelessness. This creates a sense that things cannot be changed. To overcome this feeling we must know we are loved by God unconditionally. Our prayer life won’t be what it should be until we receive the love of God. Then comes forgiveness. Until we can receive forgiveness we will not be what we should be in Christ. In this case we will not have a strong prayer life. Some of the other strongholds discussed were: fear, intimidation, generational strong holds, traditional strongholds, and slave mentality. A strong prayer life and faith that God will deliver from all entrapments is the only way we can overcome these strongholds. We must be assured of God’s unconditional love. We cannot do the work of God unless we are in the presence of God. We must have a hunger and thirst to be in God’s Presence.

The Young adult break-out session consisted of three classes:
- "A Time for Balance: Family, Work and Ministry". Sister Laura Brothers, St Jude Baptist Church
- "A Time for Praise for Who God Is", Sister Dana Brothers, Antioch Full Gospel Baptist Church

A Time for Balance : Family, Work, and Ministry - Sister Laura discussed how God should be an asset and not a liability and that self, family, job, church, bills, etc. should be liabilities and not assets. The next topic was presented by Sister Chrystal Heard, she stated prayer is two parts: your part in the doing and God's part of granting the ability. She provided the following website for helping with prayer: www.ChristianWord.com.

The final topic was presented by a representative from Langston University (OSBDC) Oklahoma Small Business Development Center. Sister Dean discussed "A Time for Financial Matters". This included life skills on Continued on page 14

The Baptist Ministers Association, led by Fairview’s Pastor J. A. Reed, Jr., is preparing to bring preachers from across the United States to Oklahoma City, the week of April 6–11, for the 66th Annual Simultaneous Revival. Over 30 churches will be participating in this massive, city-wide evangelistic effort.

This year’s evangelist will be Dr. Tom E. Diamond, Senior Pastor of the Abyssinia Baptist Church, Jacksonville, Florida. Dr. Diamond served as the evangelist for the 64th Revival in 2008 and returned in 2009 as an instructor, teaching on Christian Discipleship.

Also returning to Fairview and as a guest soloist for the Mass Services will be recording artist Lillian Jointer Lilly Brookhaven, Mississippi. Lillian is an original member of the Mississippi Mass Choir, featured as principal soloists on all five widely successful albums by the Grammy-nominated choir. Additionally, she has two solo albums, “Gotta Have Faith” and “The Other Part of Me.”

Worship at Fairview will be Tuesday through Friday, beginning at 7:00 p.m. nightly with music Sister Lilly and Fairview’s Music Ministry.

The participating churches and evangelists will meet Tuesday through Friday at mid-day, 11:30 a.m., and late-night, 10:00 p.m., for joint worship. There will also be a 8:00 a.m. Revival Breakfast on Friday morning at St. John Baptist Church, 5700 N. Kelley Avenue. Rev. L. K. Curry of Chicago will be the messenger.

The youth will be in charge of Friday night’s late-night service, which will be held at Fairview. Rev. B. Bailey, Dallas, Texas, will preach. A mass youth choir will provide music for the service.

The Revival will close Sunday, April 11, at 3:00 p.m. at St. John. Rev. Sedric Veal, Cleveland, Ohio, will bring the closing message. A mass choir, which will be comprised of members of all participating churches, will sing for the closing service. Pastor Reed is asking that all adult choir members of Fairview’s Music Ministry would participate in the choir. Rehearsal will be Saturday, April 18, at 1:00 p.m. at St. John.

Minister Cleo McGlory, Evangelism Minister at Fairview, will give direction for the simultaneous Evangelism effort. The Pastor is asking that each member would support the revival through prayer, finance and presence.

For more information on the revival or transportation, call the church at 405-232-1621.
The Annual Conference of the Western Region of the National Baptist Convention, USA., Inc. will meet in Oklahoma City, May 10—12, 2010. Fairview Pastor and National Convention Vice President, Dr. J. A. Reed, Jr., is serving as Host Chair. Dr. Reed has oversight of the Western Region, which is currently constituted by the following states: Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Kansas, Nevada, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Utah, and Washington.

The Crowne Plaza Hotel, 2945 N. W. Expressway, will be the Conference Headquarter. All of the day sessions of the Conference will be held at the hotel. The three night sessions will be held at Fairview.

There will be a Pre-Conference Musical at Fairview on Monday night at 7:00 p.m. The choir will be made up of singers and musicians from across the state. Choir rehearsals will be held at Fairview on April 12, 19, 26 and May 3 and 9. Rehearsals will be at 7:00 p.m. Velina Davenport of Tabitha is Chair of the Music Committee with Anttwain Cox and Valerie Howard assisting.

Fairview members are encouraged to participate in the Conference and support the night services. For more information, call the church at 405-232-1621.
After the delicious luncheon was enjoyed by everyone, the second part of the conference was opened by Mistresses of Ceremony, Sisters Carzetta Threats and Tara Wooten. Sister Maxine Thurman gave the opening prayer. The program consisted of: A selection by Sister Latrina Rich, and a selection by Unified Spirit. It was now time for one of the highlights of the day, the fashion show. The ladies came forth dressed in their very best Sunday-Go-To-Meeting attire. Everyone was dazzled by their splendor. The second highlight of the day was our dynamic guest speaker, Sister Elizabeth Dungan. Sister Rhonda Mitchell, EZD first vice president presented our guest speaker.

Sister Dungan gave a prophetic message 333, taken from Isaiah 33:3. Sister Dungan told the ladies, “You are women of unmerited favor. We have a shield of favor.” She stated that 555 stands for grace, unmerited favor. 555 also means empowerment. We are to elevate our walk with the Lord. We have become partakers of His divine nature. We must get this into our spirit. She stated that God’s kingdom can be displayed through our spirits. She said that the number 5 represents a higher standard. We are redeemed, we are justified and we are empowered to move from glory to glory. God's children must be prepared to be the voice of change and remember that God supplies “all our need according to His riches in glory.” She then told us to not let strongholds hold us back. She then talked about the Good, The Bad, and The Ugly. THE GOOD: The family who is always loving, who tells you the truth even when you are wrong. THE BAD: You don't see them until they want something from you. They are never there when you need them. THE UGLY: They add to your problems. They are super critical. Ugly won’t let you get up, it has no feelings and offers no encouraging words. Ugly never stops coming, but God is there through the good, the bad, and the ugly.

The conference ended with prayer and remarks from President Olivette Brothers.

2010—APRIL 15 THE FAIRVIEWAN
We greet you once again in the Matchless and Eternal Name of Our Lord and Savior, Jesus, The Christ.

God keeps on blessing the Ministry in many ways. Our efforts in recruiting men to become actively involved in the plans and programs keeps on increasing. We are adding new members to our Singing Churchmen and continue to seek others who will become a part of the group. The effort to train our young boys and men through the Royal Ambassador/Junior Laymen programs is going well.

I want to address the next few comments to the parents and guardians of our young boys and men. The best efforts of the Senior Laymen to teach and train our future Senior Laymen will utterly fail if we cannot get the cooperation of the parents and guardians to see that the young men will be there to be the recipients of the training that is offered.

We have heard many comments from some of our young men, among them is that “we do not want to become Jr. Laymen.” Young men, the Senior Laymen, through its Executive Committee Members, have no requirement for you to serve as Jr. Laymen. We are foremost and primarily interested in you being available to us to receive biblical training from the Holy Bible. We recognize that only The Holy Spirit can change your life and have you become all that the Holy Spirit would have you become. But we believe just as fervently that the Holy Spirit uses dedicated Sr. Laymen to facilitate the spiritual growth that you must undergo to become all that The Holy Spirit would have you become. We are commanded to plant the seed, but it is God who will give the increase. Parents and Guardians, please assist us by seeing that the young charges that are under your care be in attendance at these much needed training sessions. Indirectly, you will benefit for you will have a young charge that will not present as many problems to you as they do by leading a less Godly life. I have talked with some of you individually about your sons and grandsons that are not attending the training sessions and it is my intent to talk to more of you.

Please get your sons & grandsons involved for there are many activities, other than the Bible training that is incorporated in the programs that we have for them. All of these activities are intended to make better young citizens and to have them grow into adulthood and become all that God would have them to become. If you need to know more about the program agenda, please contact Brothers Terry Peeler, Walter Ellison, James Tobler, Vince Guydon, or Larry Epps. Each of these Brethren are committed and dedicated to helping shape the lives of our boys and young men.

The Ministry wishes to add its voice to the throngs of members and well wishers to congratulate our beloved Pastor for completing 47 years of dedicated service to the Fairview Church Family, the Oklahoma City local area, the State of Oklahoma, and the Nation. Pastor, you have our continued support and our desire is that God will allow you to serve for many additional years, laboring in the vineyard.

Once more we call upon each of you to become actively involved in the activities of the Ministry. God wants you to get off the bench and in the fray. As Jesus said in Matthew 9:37: “The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few.” As God has promised, your service will be rewarded with untold blessings.

PLEASE JOIN US AS WE PRAY FOR PRESIDENT OBAMA. GOD PLACED HIM IN THAT HIGH OFFICE, AND HE NEEDS OUR UNSWERVING PRAYERFUL SUPPORT.

Scripture for the Month: And God said, let us make man in our image, after our likeness. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them. Genesis 1:26a, 27.

Charles M. Hardrick, Director – Men’s Ministry
